

Name: Eric Massaro

Hometown: Roseau, MN

Where are you at in life now? I've just completed my first year at Bemidji State University, majoring in science education with a Chemistry emphasis.

Last good book you read: The Sea Wolf by Jack London

Last good movie you saw: Avatar

Favorite food: Italian

A country you would like to visit: New Zealand, because I think it looks like a really nice place to spend some time.

A Bible character (other than Jesus) you would like to meet: Solomon, cause he's so wise, and he would be a good person to have a conversation with.

A Bible verse that has been important to you this year: 1 Corinthians 10:13: But Remember that the temptations that come into your life are no different from what others experience. And God is faithful. He will keep the temptation from becoming so strong that you can't stand up against it. When you are tempted, He will show you a way out so that you will not give in to it.

Favorite thing about Bluewater: The laid back atmosphere! And seeing everyone's excitement when they first get there and sadness that they have to leave at the end. Along with great worship.
