

Name: Kariann Pederson

Hometown: Bemidji, MN

Where are you at in life now: I am a junior at Northwestern College in St. Paul, MN. I am studying Biochemistry and hope to go onto become a Physician Assistant.

Last good book you read: The Chronicles of Narnia

Last good movie you saw: Soul Surfer

Favorite food: Chocolate or sushi

A country you would like to visit: New Zealand, because I went to YWAM there last fall and love everything about it! Otherwise, Italy or Greece because I have never been there and hear that it is beautiful.

A Bible character (other than Jesus) you would like to meet: King David, because he was on fire for God, honest about his sin in front of his entire kingdom, and after God's own heart.

A Bible verse that has been important to you this year: Joshua 1:9

Favorite thing about Bluewater: Definitely the games (especially night games), swimming, and making great friendships while growing closer to God through the week!
