Where are you at in life now? I am finishing up my freshman year at the University of North Dakota. Next year I will return to UND and start taking classes with hopes of entering the Athletic Training department or possibly education. It's still up in the air.

Last good book you read: I don't read a lot BUT I am in the process of, "When God Writes Your Love Story" by Eric and Leslie Ludy.

Last good movie you saw: Finding Nemo

Favorite food: I will eat anything, with the exception of Mayo.

A country you would like to visit: Iran, I have a lot of family there and family is very important to me.

A Bible character (other than Jesus) you would like to meet: Noah, because he was told to build the arc and he did. He is a great demonstration of listening to God and fulfilling the plans he has for us.

A Bible verse that has been important to you this year: Philippians 4:6-7; Don't worry about anything; instead pray about everything. Tell God what you need and thank him for all he has done. Then you will experience God's peace, which exceeds anything we can understand. His peace will guard your hearts and minds as you live in Christ Jesus.

Favorite thing about Bluewater: The overwhelming feeling you get when the whole chapel is worshipping and you can just feel the Holy Spirit and work in peoples' hearts. Oh, and the lake and the people and the food and the FUN :)
